#NexGenLeaders by ECS Group: Best projects
Published: Thursday, May 16, 2019

Just five months after ECS Group launched the #NexGenLeaders challenge, the 10 best projects have just been selected! The final selection stage took place simultaneously worldwide on 13 months, presented their projects live and in person to ECS Group. This rewarding day was full of amazing moments and discoveries. It's a major victory for the 10 teams, which all win a place on 4-7 June in Munich – the ideal opportunity to present their cargo industry, whose task it will be to select the best project, the best startup project, and best ECS project. It's a big achievement for the 10 teams that were successful in Munich also gives them the opportunity to open doors to the prestigious World Air Cargo Awards Ceremony 2019 in London. LIFT EACH OTHER TO NEW HEIGHTS

2019.05.21

Northwestern Africa in the broad sense is not new territory for the ECS Group, a global GSSA. It took a minority stake in national carrier Niger Air Cargo seven years ago (see page 17 of ITJ 49-52 / 2012).

Group CEO Adrien Thominet and Royal Air Maroc's vice-president for cargo, Salim Quouninich (in office since autumn), met up with ITJ editor Andreas Haug recently to talk about the airline from Casablanca's prospects.
